Marsh is the one that's going to carry this amendment. Is that right, Senator Marsh?

CLERK: Senator Marsh asks unanimous consent to withdraw her amendments found on page 155 and to insert some new ones.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: The amendment, which I had passed out on your desks this morning for you to have a chance to look at before this came up, has a clarification. In line 4 strike "4", which is the requirement that they must have a four year enlistment, and insert "3". My purpose for inserting the "three" year enlistment is so that this amendment will cover the women in the service. The women make their enlistments for three years rather than four years. If this says three years then it would cover both the men and women in the service.

The other amendment to the Committee amendments is in Section 3, insert "upon initial enrollment". Then after "credit" strike "semester for academic". Rather than having it say a "baccalaureate degree" we're striking that and having it just say "degree". There is some confusion between a four year institution and our technical community college degrees. So rather than get into that complicated language, we simply are having them work toward a degree.

I move the adoption of this amendment to the Committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: The Committee amendments are not in the book. There's some question as to whether the body can consider this matter at all. Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Mr. President, I move, ... or whatever is necessary, to pass over this until such time as we have the amendment to apply the amendment to.

CLERK: The only motion, Mr. President, that could be taken up is Senator Marsh's request to withdraw the amendment on page 155.

PRESIDENT: Did you want to make a request for unanimous consent to do that? Is there an objection? Seeing none, that's ordered. Now Senator Dickinson makes a request for unanimous consent to lay the matter over until the amendments are printed in the books?

SENATOR DICKINSON: Yes sir.

PRESIDENT: Is there an objection? Seeing none, that is ordered.

SENATOR MARSH: Excuse me, Mr. President. I thought his amendment was until we have the Committee amendments, not that they get printed in the book. So that we have them in our books, or available to put in our books. Isn't that correct? You want the information on your desk where it's supposed to be in your green book, Senator Dickinson? We don't need it printed in the Journal. We need it on our desks where it's supposed to be.
